

Suresh Devnani, Ph.D.

Results Oriented Keynote Speaker, 4 x TEDx Speaker, Best-Selling Author

Companies that we have served

Dr. Suresh Devnani is an award-winning speaker and internationally recognized global expert in leadership, and workplace culture. For over 28 years, he has been teaching entrepreneurs, educators, corporate leaders, professionals, and over-achievers how to build innovative, thriving organizations and design the dynamic life they desire.

As a successful entrepreneur, former corporate executive, he is both an academic and a practitioner, incorporating his continual research into day-to-day business. He has taught thousands of individuals in over 123 countries through his books, videos, online masterclass, and keynote speeches.

After advising some of the world's most prominent individuals and companies, ranging from best-selling authors to emerging startups and innovative multi-nationals, Suresh designed a framework for creativity that helps individuals and organizations achieve exponential growth.

Dr. Devnani's clients have found his speeches to be "inspirational", his counseling to be "transformational", and his consulting to be "impactful", earning him the title of "the Happy Doctor".

Rave Reviews

We knew there was something wrong, but our managers just didn't want to spend money doing something that might not work. Dr. Devnani's seminars changed all that, and we suddenly found our staff smiling around the office. I am both humbled and embarrassed to say that I was wrong. Thank you Sir for fixing our performance.

Hatem Bacha, Human Resources Director Tunisie Télécom

We never thought that we would actually see an improvement on our bottom line. The subject of happiness often seems elusive, but Dr. Devnani, in his thought provoking manner, has successfully made us think and re-think this concept to vastly improve our business.

Col. KC. Menon, Regional Manager Human Resources ITC Hotels
Part of the Starwood Hotels Luxury Collections

I was doing excellently and our numbers were great. There was no such thing as too much money, but I was skeptical to address the 'wishy washy' things about Happiness. Our employees seemed fine to me. But Dr. Devnani showed me that underneath what seemed like a solid exterior, our company had a real toxic culture that led to high turnover rates costing us dearly. With a 1-week intensive program and yearly follow-ups, we cut our turnover rate by 70%.

Asmaa Hassouni, General Manager Royal Air Maroc

I never thought that this would actually pay off. Dr. Devnani, you have changed my life – made me realise my purpose, made me strong enough to take care of my life, my family, my friends and myself. Not only am I now running the start-up of my dreams, but I am a resilient, happy, and to a large extent content with actually being alive.
